2017/5778 HIGH HOLIDAYS SCHEDULE

---

Dear Friends,

We look forward to sharing the High Holidays together. The PJC has been busy preparing for another year of meaningful services, and a full program of related activities. In this packet, you will find a complete schedule and informational flyers for all services and activities from Selichot through Sukkot. A few logistical reminders:

- ✧ Rosh Hashanah begins on Wednesday evening, September 20th;
- ✧ Children's programs will begin each day at 10:00 a.m., followed by lunch and supervised activities through the end of the adults services; and
- ✧ The PJC will be full, and we do not have "tickets" for assigned seating. For us to be able to ensure adequate seating, it is important that everyone bringing guests complete the Guest Registration. If you are coming with a large family and expect to find seats all together, please plan to arrive early.

Again this year, we offer a wide range of programs, and encourage you to consider adding a new tradition to your family's observance. Come to Tashlich at Shore Park on the afternoon of Rosh Hashanah Day 1. Cast your sins into the water, and stay for dessert and frisbee. Or, make this the first year that you put up a Sukkah at home. It will be a great experience, and the PJC has a Sukkah rental and set-up program that makes it easy.

Program RSVPs can be completed using the online sign-up form that is available both on our website, www.thepjc.org, and through a link included in our weekly email announcements. The online sign-up is easy to use, and you can sign up to:

- ✧ Register Guests
- ✧ Participate in Children's Services/Register for Programs
- ✧ List Loved Ones in the Scroll of Remembrance
- ✧ Order a Lulav and Etrog
- ✧ Rent a Sukkah

If you do not have access to a computer, or if you need additional assistance, please contact Julia Coss in the office at (914) 738-6008.

Wishing you a meaningful Yamin Noraim, and a year of health and prosperity.

Rabbi Alex Salzberg

SELICHOT
“Tshuvah for America”
Saturday, September 16th, at 8:30 p.m.

*Please join Shaarei Tikvah, the Pelham Jewish Center and special guest speaker - Ruth Messenger (former president of the American Jewish World Service, Manhattan Borough President and tireless advocate for justice) - as we experience Selichot* together through a powerful evening of learning, introspection and conversation. The program, “Tshuvah for America”, will focus on the Jewish concept of tshuvah, which is the constant spiritual process of returning to a better self through dedicated work and a vision of self improvement.*

We will discuss how this applies to our nation during challenging times and how we can bring our core values to bear.

*This experience is open to the community.
Let us begin our New Year on the right foot.*

**Jewish religious service with high holiday liturgy that takes place the Saturday night before Rosh Hashana to prepare us for the season of repentance.*

RSVP Required by September 14th to:
synagogue@shaareitikvah.org or (914) 472-2013, ext. 300

High Holidays Guests

Hineni – Here I am. The Pelham Jewish Center welcomes guests to join our community for the High Holidays.

Members are asked to register their relatives and guests in advance.

For non-members, we invite you to join us for our High Holiday Services. We are a unique, intimate, egalitarian Conservative synagogue. Our members come from a variety of backgrounds, and we care deeply for one another. Join the PJC congregation, led by our Rabbi Alex Salzberg and Chazzan Avinoam Segal, for services that are spiritually moving, intellectually stimulating and musically rich. Our sanctuary is filled with the voices of our congregation praying together. As the season of renewed optimism and fresh starts approaches, experience our warm and joyous community firsthand.

For families with children, we offer two age-appropriate Children's Services each day, free of charge.

We ask that all guests register online by Thursday, September 14th, using the sign-up form that can be found on our website at www.thepjc.org.

Fees:

Members' Adult Children 26 or older/$150 each

Guests for Rosh Hashanah only/$150 each

Guests for Yom Kippur only/$150 each

Guests for both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur/$250 each
