I visited Israel in July 2024. This included a visit to the Peres Center for Peace and Innovation in Tel Aviv. There was an exhibit of photographs pertaining to October 7th, created by photographer Ziv Koren. Additionally, this book was available for purchase.

The book is vivid and raw. It has great sadness, some happiness, and resilience. It creates many emotions. It is reality.

The book is temporarily available in the PJC office. Congregants may view it while on the PJC premises. We are keeping it in the office, rather than the library, as we only want it to be accessible to minors with their parents' support and permission.

Let's all pray for peace.
